

I am completely opposed to weakening the current "no call" list. The law as it stands is just fine. If I want to do business with a bank, or any other business, I am capable of initiating contact. Being bothered in the privacy of my home is not their right, nor should it be. Stand up for the people and oppose a change in the law! J. Kranz MD